Day 9: HA NOI – NINH BINH – HOA LU – TAM COC

Morning, meet our guide and transfer to Ninh Binh province - located in South of Hanoi to Tam Coc cave which is one of the most spectacular sights in Vietnam. Along the Hoang Long River, vast limestone cliffs rise out of the rice paddies make Tam Coc somehow similar to Ha long Bay; thus, Tam Coc is also called Ha long Bay on-land. A river trip to Tam Coc and through three caves is wonderful for photo hunters, especially when local residents come to harvest the rice planted along the river or when they transplant seeding for the next crop. Next to Tam Coc is Hoa Lu, the relics of the ancient capital of Vietnam from 10th century. What remains are temples dedicated to the two heroes: King Dinh and King Le whom chosen Hoa Lu to build the citadel of the capital city. Though the temples are not wholly maintained, some precious antiques are still preserved well. Like: the whole-stone dragon thrones; and lacquered statues of King Dinh, Kinh Le and Queen Duong Van Nga who in turn got married to both of the Kings. End of day, transfer back to Hanoi.
